

Krakow

Krakow, Kraków, Cracow, Krakov – call it whichever you want – a big welcome will be awaiting you on your visit to Poland's “cultural cupital”. Krakow is a city wrapped in legend, where time flows differently and where every moment becomes a moment of history. For centuries Krakow was the capital of Poland, the seat of kings, drawing great scholars and artists from the whole world. Their talents and imagination have left the city with a rich legacy of unique historical monuments, reflecting the most important trends in European culture. We'll be visiting the Renaissance Royal Castle and Cathedral at Wawel – with the original dragon and its cave – royal Kanonicza Street, the Gothic St Mary's Basilica, the shops and stalls in the historical Cloth Hall (“Sukiennice”), the Barbican, the City Walls, the Jewish Quarter, Kazimierz's synagogues, the mysterious streets of the Old Town and the ancient Jagiellonian University. Galleries full of exhibitions, cafes, pubs and restaurants... and also the fascinating Salt-Mine House in Wieliczka and the notorious concentration camp at Auschwitz and Birkenau.
