

Czech Paradise and UNESCO World Heritage sites

Eastern Bohemia offers many unusual sights and opportunities for leisure-time activities. This beautiful part of the Czech Republic - called Czech Paradise - presents visitors with a wide range of tourist attractions, from castles and chateaux, churches and other monuments, to marvelous and varied landscapes, from the Labe (Elbe) river lowlands to the highest peaks of the Eagle Mountains (Orlické hory) and rocks in Prachov. History lovers will enjoy exploring well preserved historical town centres, museums and exhibitions... We invite you to visit several of the most attractive places: the town of Litomyšl - the birthplace of the composer Bedřich Smetana - and its magnificent Renaissance chateau (UNESCO World Heritage site), medieval Kost Castle, the world-renowned Saint Barbara's Church - one of the most famous Gothic churches in central Europe (UNESCO World Heritage site), Kutná hora – the historical town of silver mines and the mysterious Church of Bones in Sedlec Ossuary. Next there will be a nice hiking in the famous rock formation known as Prachovské skály, as well as Jičín, a town straight out of a fairy-tale and home to the popular Czech animated film characters Robber Rumcajs, Manka and Cipísek ....

And the accommodation will be in nice cottages with daily disco nights ....
